

CELEBRATING 200 YEARS OF ILLINOIS HISTORY: EXPLORING GEOGRAPHY THROUGH PRIMARY SOURCES IN THE ELEMENTARY CLASSROOM

TUESDAY, JULY 10, 2018,
8:30 AM – 4 PM
ILLINOIS STATE UNIVERSITY,
NORMAL, IL

1-DAY GEOGRAPHY TEACHER WORKSHOP

The Illinois Geographic Alliance (IGA) and Library of Congress Teaching with Primary Sources (TPS) Midwest Region are pleased to offer a 1-day workshop for elementary teachers as part of the Illinois Bicentennial celebration in 2018.

Come join us as we celebrate 200 years of Illinois history!

WORKSHOP GOAL

The goal of the workshop is to introduce primary sources (maps, photographs, documents, etc.) related to the Illinois Bicentennial that elementary teachers can use to integrate into their existing curriculum.

EXPENSES

- Free workshop!
- CPDU credits will be provided at no cost to all teachers.
- Participants will cover travels costs to/from workshop.

REGISTRATION

Please register online by clicking on this link.

Please register by June 22

QUESTIONS?

Dr. John Kostelnick
Department of Geography, Geology,
& the Environment
Illinois State University

jkostelnick@ilstu.edu

309-438-7679

